

DRAKE HOUSE

HOPE COVE

A luxurious and welcoming holiday home...

...in a sought-after coastal location

Picturesque Hope Cove

Overlooking the charming village of Hope Cove, once a smugglers' haunt and fishing village and now a much-loved holiday destination, Drake House boasts stunning sea views. Just a few minutes walk to sandy beaches, the house has been extended, renovated and stylishly modernised to create a spacious and luxurious holiday retreat in an incredible location.

Spend lazy days exploring the rock pools and building sandcastles, follow the miles of glorious South West Coast Path almost from your doorstep or simply relax on the sunny terrace enjoying the wonderful views across the beaches and out to sea.

Luxurious Seaside House for all Seasons

Large sliding doors in the sitting and dining areas 'bring the outside in' and lead out onto sunny paved terraces, perfect for al fresco dining. Whatever the weather enjoy the ever-changing landscape and far reaching views, whilst relaxing in the comfort of your immaculately presented holiday home.

With beautiful unspoilt beaches just a short walk away, a local pub, tea room and village shop all close by, and the rest of the area's stunning coastline, towns and villages within a short drive, enjoy a fantastic break at this very special property all year round.

Stylish Retreat for Special Family Holidays

With five very tastefully furnished and styled bedrooms sleeping up to ten in total, all boasting lovely sea or country views, plus four bath/shower rooms, Drake House makes a fabulous base for one or two families or an extended family group. A spacious two-tiered sitting area, separate cosy snug and large beautifully appointed kitchen and utility room offer plenty of room for the whole family to enjoy their break together. A large changing room off the garden even has two showers – ideal for rinsing off sandy kids after a day on the beach!
